

Congresswoman Zoe Lofgren (CA-16)

Invites you to attend a workshop on

HOME FORECLOSURE What To Do Before, During, and After

Join us for panel discussions, one-on-one counseling, and legal consults to learn more about:

BEFORE – Actions you can take to prevent foreclosure from happening.

DURING – Understanding the foreclosure process, tax consequences, and possible remedies.

AFTER – The consequences and benefits of bankruptcy, tax issues, and ways to reestablish your credit after foreclosure has been completed.

DATE: Saturday, August 9, 2008

TIME: 10:00 A.M. – 1:00 P.M.

LOCATION: James Lick High School
57 N White Road
San Jose, CA 95127

Agencies Providing Consultations and Presentations:

U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD)
Internal Revenue Service (IRS)
Department of Veterans Affairs (DVA)
Catholic Charities of Santa Clara County
Neighborhood Housing Services of Santa Clara County
Project Sentinel
Consumer Credit Counseling Service
Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN)
Santa Clara County Bar Association
Fair Housing Law Project – Law Foundation of Silicon Valley
Pro Bono Project – Debtor's Rights
Bay Area Legal Aid

Attendees are encouraged to bring all documents and notices received regarding their mortgage, home loans, or foreclosure proceedings.

All services are FREE. Translation in Spanish and Vietnamese will be provided.
For more information on the event or to volunteer, please visit www.lofgren.house.gov or call: 408-271-8700