Joe Biden wants to “count every vote.”

President @realDonaldTrump wants to count every legal vote.

There’s a big difference.

Tonight I lead a letter with 25 other @GOP Member-elects demanding that Nancy Pelosi investigates the 2020 election irregularities. The American people deserve answers. We must have confidence in our elections. Anything less is unacceptable.

Washington, D.C. – Wednesday, Congresswoman Michelle Fischbach (MN-07) issued the following statement as the joint session of Congress meets to formally consider the electoral votes for the President and Vice-President of the United States:

"Today, I plan to vote for the objections to the certification of electoral votes in certain contested states. This election was shrouded in allegations of irregularities and fraud too voluminous to ignore. In order to fulfill my duty to the constitution and my constituents, I believe there must be a proper investigation to consider these claims.

"Perhaps most fundamental to the rights of an American is the right to vote, and we must do all we can to protect that franchise. If the American people lose faith in the integrity of their elections, the impact would be an irreversible and catastrophic blow to the exercise of free and fair democracy.

"Minnesotans can count on me to continue being a vigorous defender of election integrity and our democracy."

Today's protest in D.C., which led to a breach of the U.S. Capitol, brings the same response. What is being perpetrated by a forceful fraction of protesters is unacceptable and I condemn all illegal actions. 2/5

Storming the U.S. Capitol is not acceptable, and I condemn in the strongest possible terms those who have breached the area and disrupted House and Senate deliberations. As Americans, this is not how we settle debates and disagreements. It is time for calm and order. 4/5

I have attended scores of political rallies and protests, all peaceful. I continue to encourage all concerned Americans to be involved in the political process - to speak out and make their views known, but do so within the confines of the law.

In the closing months of the presidential race, partisan government officials and courts, often at the behest of organized liberal activists, amended or suspended election laws and voting procedures in several key states, and did so without approval from state legislatures. These unilateral and unconstitutional actions, influenced the outcomes of elections, called into question the integrity of the 2020 presidential election and needlessly created a constitutional crisis.

We must shine a light on the unilateral actions of state officials and courts, who subverted the proper authority of state legislatures to change election laws. For our republic and the Electoral College process to properly function, the U.S. Constitution must be respected.

My votes are intended to encourage state legislatures to reclaim their authority and restore election integrity. Moving forward, Electoral College inequities must be addressed in a timely fashion by state legislatures, and, when necessary, the U.S. Supreme Court.

Lastly, I continue to advocate for a commission, created by Congress and comprised of House, Senate and Supreme Court members, to perform a forensic audit of the 2020 presidential election.

.@SpeakerPelosi is fixated upon using taxpayer dollars to erect permanent barriers around the Capitol building and further dividing the nation with her “enemy within” comments. Her actions prioritize an agenda of partisan politics over Americans in need.

The acting Capitol Police chief pledged to work with lawmakers to permanently beef up security in and around the complex.
