Three days since election day, we still do not know the final outcome of our Presidential Election. And, since it is more than a month before the Electoral College meets, there is no reason to rush to a conclusion.

If our Democracy is to last, then every legal vote should be counted. And every vote cast in error, or illegally, should be thrown out. Period. Also, when the vote counts in states are extremely close, TV networks and news agencies, in a race to be first, should not take it upon themselves to coronate winners, while hundreds of thousands of votes have yet to be counted.

To that point, there is also no excuse for so many votes to still not have been counted days after the election. It is very clear, that many of the states in our country are painfully in need of more efficient ways to count ballots. Frankly, the slowness of this process is an embarrassment to our election process. We are almost a quarter of the way through the 21st century, but in some states, their vote counting is reminiscent of the 19th century. When states are slow to count votes, and when that slowness is centered around Democrat leaning counties, it leads to questions that undermine people’s faith in our election process. Americans must have faith in the outcome of the election. They would do well to look at our voting system here in Alabama, which our Secretary of State John Merrill has made, in my opinion, the best in the country.

Those improvements in other states will unfortunately come too late for Election 2020. That’s why until the votes are finally counted, we must remain vigilant that every American who casts a legal vote, has their vote counted. This process should not be considered complete, until we have a clear winner.
As I stated Friday, every legal vote should be counted. Presidential Elections are over when the votes are certified, and the Electoral College meets in December. President Trump has every right to legally challenge any state results and to seek a recount where appropriate.

It’s been a whole week since the election and votes are still being counted. That is unacceptable.

This slow count undermines the integrity of this election, especially since these votes are still trickling in from Democrat leaning counties.

It’s November 10th!

I’m proud to support this amicus brief filed with the U.S. Supreme Court to ensure the 2020 Presidential election was conducted fairly and without voter fraud. I signed onto the brief but a technical snafu in the sponsor’s office kept mine and several other members off the list.

"As Congress will soon be faced with the actual counting of various states' electoral votes for the next president of the United States on January 6, it is imperative that members of Congress, like myself, look to the United States Constitution, and to the Electoral Act of 1887, to know how we should move forward. From examining these documents on my own, it is clear to me that Congress has the final review of the electoral process and this is not just a ceremonial act.

"Therefore, based on the overwhelming questions that have been raised about moving forward with the approval of the electors from the states. I have come to the conclusion, and agree with my fellow Alabamian, Rep. Mo Brooks, along with several my colleagues, that there are too many reports of serious fraud for this not to be debated in the House and Senate.

"In addition, I also support the efforts by Texas Senator Ted Cruz, newly elected Alabama Senator Tommy Tuberville, and other Senators, to go a step further and create a bi-cameral commission to more closely examine the election results. Furthermore, I call on other members of the House of Representatives to join these efforts as well. We owe it to the American people to investigate what exactly transpired during this election year, and if state laws were broken by activist judges who decided to make election law on their own, No matter who is sworn in on January 20th, whether it be Joe Biden or Donald Trump, the winner needs to know, and should want to know, if the process was carried out fairly and according to individual state law, which the Constitution demands."

Video: “As I have recently stated, I plan to challenge the counting of votes from several states… Because of the COVID pandemic, some elected officials decided to change laws in their states. However, the U.S. Constitution clearly states that state legislatures are to set the laws regarding the selection of electors from their states.”

Wednesday I plan to challenge the electoral votes of Georgia, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. The video below goes into more detail as to why I feel these states' votes should be objected to.
Since my video post earlier today, I have also decided to challenge the electoral votes of Arizona and Nevada. So, that is six states (Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Nevada, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin) I will be challenging tomorrow.

Audio: “But in a bigger sense, part of the problem is the uncertainty interjected into the election process by this early mailing of ballots en masse… The only weakness in the Alabama system is that you don’t really know if a person is an American citizen who can lawfully vote, and that’s because the Democrats out of Washington, D.C. have made it extraordinarily difficult for election officials to determine if a person is a United States citizen when they register to vote… Well of course Democrats want that kind of process because it has more vulnerabilities to election fraud. And the Democrats are renown for engaging in election fraud, voter fraud, election theft, however you want to categorize it… You don’t see the Democrats doing anything at all that minimizes the risk of election fraud, of non-citizens voting. Everything that the Democrats seemingly push for, creates another weakness that the criminal element that wants to steal elections can exploit… I have concerns about all of them… I’ll tell you right now, I don’t have confidence, if Joe Biden is reportedly elected President of the United States, I do not have confidence that the person who would be sworn in, was sworn in because that person in fact got the lawful votes needed to win the electoral college… based on all of the things I know about election theft and voter fraud from the past, coupled with how much easier it is to steal an election or engage in voter fraud with this system that the Democrats have been so successful in implementing around the country that has weakened my and a lot of other[s’] faith in the system.”

As a U.S. House member, I’m going to be very hesitant to certify the results of this election if Joe Biden is declared the winner under these circumstances b/c I lack faith that this was an honest election. Listen to my interview on @WVNN where I explain why.

Unfortunately, America’s election process has systemic weaknesses that too often allow voter fraud and election theft and fail America… Today, I share my personal experience as a voter fraud and election theft target… Naively trusting America’s election system. That trust was soon shattered… Democrats had motive. Democrats had opportunity. Democrats had control. Democrats rigged the voting machines. Fortunately, despite the attempted election theft, we still won with 57 percent of the vote. Every candidate and every American has an absolute right to an election system that stops voter fraud, prevents election theft, and accurately records only lawful votes cast by eligible American citizens.”

In my most recent House Floor speech, I share my personal experience as a voter fraud & election theft target when, in 1982, as a Republican candidate for Alabama House District 18, Democrats sought to steal the election by rigging voting machines.

Rep. Mo Brooks says he plans to challenge the Electoral College vote when Congress is expected to officially certify President-Elect Joe Biden’s victory on Jan. 6.

I'm going to object to Electoral College certification in the House because in my judgement we are witness to the largest voter fraud and election theft effort in the history of the United States. Watch my interview on @FoxFriendsFirst!
https://twitter.com/RepMoBrooks/status/1335603812153896960

Video: “The evidence is absolutely overwhelming in Nevada. Donald Trump won the state of Nevada if you only count lawful votes cast by eligible American citizens. Same thing is true in Georgia, same thing is true in Pennsylvania. In my judgement, if you could only count lawful votes cast by eligible American citizens, Donald Trump easily won the electoral college and is [in] line to be the next President of the United States. The evidence is there, you just have to look at it. I tend to focus on systemic problems associated with the election process… they’re willing to steal elections in order to acquire that dictatorial power, and by golly, it’s time for the American people to fight back.”

I’m absolutely convinced that this is the largest voter fraud and election theft in American history. I will object to the Electoral College vote certification in the House to protect our Republic from the Socialist Democrat take over. Watch my fiery interview on @newsmax TV!

Video: “Congress is the judge, jury, and final arbiter of the 2020 presidential election contest. Further, America’s election system is plagued by systemic flaws that promote voter fraud and election theft. Joe Biden exploited one such flaw when he brazenly promised more than 10 million illegal aliens that he will give them amnesty and citizenship if they help elect Joe Biden President. … In contrast, socialist Democrats used bureaucratic allies or engaged rigged lawsuits involving conspiratorial parties and inattentive judges to obtain sham settlement agreements that blatantly violate the Constitution and federal law to promote voter fraud and election theft with the singular goal of stealing the United States presidency. In particular, all en masse vote by mail schemes promote voter fraud and election theft and are illegal because they violate Congress’ election procedures and 24-hour voting mandate. As such, all votes cast pursuant to these vote by mail schemes are illegal, void, and should not be counted. The evidence is overwhelming, compelling, and irrefutable. If only lawful cast by eligible American citizens are counted, President Trump won the electoral college and a second term as President. Congress can either support illegal voting, voter fraud, and election theft, or not.”

MUST WATCH: Today’s House Floor speech focused on en masse vote by mail schemes that are rife with voter fraud employed by many states in violation of federal law that sets an election day, not an election week, month, or season.
Audio: “You know, we have a choice. We can either fight for fair, honest, and accurate elections or we can surrender. It does not make any difference what the odds are of success. The question is, do you surrender? Do you duck in your foxhole and wait till the fighting is over with? Or do you stand tall and fight for the Republic of the United States of America and what underpins it, which is our election system. So, I don’t really know how to evaluate the odds of whether we’re going to win or lose. Except I do know this: if you surrender, you’re guaranteed to lose. If you fight, you have a chance to win.”

Being asked about the possibility of voter fraud in my own election on @cspanwj gave me the opportunity to point out that AL’s election system is vastly superior to other states’. AL’s system isn’t perfect but other states would do well to replicate AL’s election safeguards.
Video: “That quotes extensively from a New Jersey, professional, Democrat, election theft expert’s description of how he steals elections using the en masse mail ballot voting system. … The fraudster and his minions would then take the sealed envelopes home and hold them over boiling water. … 5 minutes per ballot tops is how long he says it takes to steal a vote. … sometimes postal employees are in on the scam. … Democrat board of election counters would know the fix was in and not to object. … President Trump handedly won the electoral college and reelection. Hence, on January 6, 2021, provided the required one Senator joins me, I will object to and vote to reject electoral college submissions of Nevada, Georgia, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, and all other states whose election systems are so badly flawed as to render their vote submissions, unreliable, untrustworthy, and unworthy of acceptance.”

It was great to join Sunday Morning Futures w/@MariaBartiromo today alongside stalwart fighter @Jim_Jordan to discuss the growing movement in Congress to reject unreliable electoral college votes from Nevada, Arizona, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Wisconsin, & Michigan. WATCH PART 1:
Video: “Well, how it plays out, quite frankly, is dependent on the American people. This is an organic movement that has risen up from angry American voters, 70+ million, who have been disenfranchised by voter fraud and election theft. To the extent they contact their senators and their congressmen and demand honest and accurate elections, then we’re going to win this fight on January 6\textsuperscript{th}. But if the American people do not rise up, if they don’t contact their senators, if they don’t contact their congressmen, demanding that their congressmen and senators do the right thing for our Republic, well then, we’re not going to win on January 6\textsuperscript{th}. So I urge all Americans to participate in this fight on behalf of their country, on behalf of their Republic, and of course, the election system that is the underpinning of any Republic.”

We have to get all Republicans on board in order to prevail. And right now, there is some obvious and unfortunate opposition within Republican ranks. Some, because they’re soft on the issue, others because they believe that Congress should play no role in this whatsoever. … I would hate to think that only Democrats are entitled to challenge presidential election electoral college submittals but Republicans aren’t. … So the Georgia Secretary of State did a huge disservice to the American people by doing what he did in the fashion in which he did it.”

And those who vote to fight for America and our Republic, who show that kind of courage, they’re going to do the right thing. But I’m very much concerned that far too many congressmen and senators who have yet to do their homework. Who have yet to perceive that the evidence is overwhelming and compelling of voter fraud and election theft, and who are more apt to duck and run, cower in their foxhole, rather than do the right thing for our country. If the American people who demanded their senators and their congressmen to stand up and fight for America, then we’ll do fine and we’ll win this vote on Wednesday. But if we have Republicans who are afraid to fight, who are unwilling to do so, who are halfhearted in their measures, well then, of course, we’re going to lose and voter fraud’s going to win. I’m going to fight to protect the integrity of our election system. I hope others will join me.”

MY FULL STATEMENT ON CAPITOL VIOLENCE:

CONGRESSMAN MO BROOKS CONDEMNS CAPITOL VIOLENCE

Washington, DC—Wednesday, Congressman Mo Brooks (AL-05) unequivocally condemned the violent mobs who stormed the U.S. Capitol.

Congressman Brooks said, “The violence at the U.S. Capitol today is despicable, un-American, and tears at the fabric of our great republic. The scenes of United States Capitol Police being violently attacked and mobs occupying the American seat of government are highly disturbing. Consistent with my history, I ALWAYS condemn lawlessness and violence of any kind and in the strongest terms. As a strong supporter of the Rule of Law, and as a former target of Socialist Democrat gunfire myself, I don't care what political views motivate the violence. I hope law enforcement and our judicial system prosecute these thugs to the fullest extent of the law.”

Brooks continued, “In America, the appropriate way to achieve political goals, the place to beat the stew out of disagreeable political philosophies, is via free speech, vigorous public debate, and at the ballot box, while always being respectful of the Rule of Law and Law Enforcement. While our election system has major, systemic flaws that Socialist Democrats egregiously exploited in 2020, that election system is still far and away the best place to change the direction and destiny of America.”

Washington, DC— Tuesday, Congressman Mo Brooks (AL-05) issued the below statement in response to scurrilous Fake Ne...
brooks.house.gov

Washington, DC— Tuesday, Congressman Mo Brooks (AL-05) issued the below statement in response to scurrilous Fake News Media and Socialist Democrat attacks related to his January 6th “Save America” rally speech.

As one of America’s most effective conservative leaders, I defend my honor and reputation against scurrilous, George Orwellian, 1984, Socialist Democrats Politics of Personal Destruction, the same attack strategy used in 2012 against then-presidential candidate Mitt Romney, and nonstop against President Trump with false Russian Collusion charges and the 2019 sham impeachment effort.

Let’s be clear, this entire smear campaign is about intimidating, censoring and suppressing the ability of American citizens to fight at the ballot box the efforts of Socialist Democrats to seize control of the United States of America.

So that I am unambiguously clear, American citizens’ recourse is at the ballot box (maybe this comment will deter Socialist Democrats and Fake News Media from again shrilly shouting false claims of violence advocacy).

Before I get into the meat of my remarks, let me add that January 6 was supposed to be a day of great debate on the floors of the House and Senate about voter fraud and election theft that is supposed to propel America to more honest or accurate elections.

Instead, our message was hijacked by people whose illegal breach of the Capitol did a great disservice to our cause and America.

Those who engaged in illegal conduct should be ashamed of themselves because their attack on the U.S. Capitol destroyed two months of debate and work.

Those who engaged in the illegal breach of the U.S. Capitol could not have done more damage if they had followed any script written by the Democrat National Committee.

I take great offense at anyone who suggests I am so politically inexperienced as to want to torpedo my honest and accurate election system effort I spent months fighting on.
Accusation Flaw #1:
Mr. Malinowski, in his Censure Resolution, alleges that “Representative Mo Brooks addressed a rally in Washington, DC, attended by numerous members of known extremist and anti-government groups, including the Proud Boys, QAnon, Boogaloo Boys, and Oathkeepers, who would shortly thereafter march to seize the United States Capitol”

That statement is meaningless because it omits a key fact. Mr. Malinowski fails to allege I knew any of that.

Why? Because I did not know any of that.

For the record, I have never knowingly associated or communicated with any of those groups in my life, and I certainly had no inkling of any of these groups were a part of the Trump rally at the Ellipse. Perhaps, at some political event, I have had a photo with one, or a five second conversation with another, but, if so, I don’t recall it and paid no attention to it.

Per my cell phone records, on Tuesday morning, January 5, I had a telephone call with Brian Jack, White House Political Director. He asked me to speak at the Trump rally the next day, Wednesday morning.

I had never attended a Trump rally in my life but had seen many on TV, and thought it an honor for the White House to invite me to address Trump volunteers and supporters, so I readily agreed.

Due to lack of time, I did not draft my speech from scratch.

The bulk of my January 6 White House Ellipse speech comes from my often-used “America is Great” political speeches that I have given dozens of times, perhaps hundreds of times, in my 34 years of public service as a Tuscaloosa assistant district attorney, an Alabama legislator, the Madison County District Attorney, a county commissioner, and U.S. Congressman.

Further, I spoke very early in the political rally. There was music, there was my speech, there was more music, then there was some number of speakers, then a couple hours or so later, President Trump began speaking.

I ask this question, if my remarks were as inspirational as the Socialist Democrats and their Fake News Media allies want the public to believe, why didn’t the Trump rally participants, after my remarks, immediately get up and storm the Capitol?

Why not indeed! The answer is simple. No one at the rally interpreted my remarks to be anything other than what they were: A pep talk after the derniere kicking conservatives suffered in the dismal 2020 elections.

But know this, I am from the Great State of Alabama, where our motto is "We Dare Defend our Rights".

Socialist Democrats and their Fake News Media Allies won’t get an apology from me because my remarks were not wrong. Conversely, the Socialist Democrats and their Fake News Media Allies should be apologizing to the public for the egregiously and manipulative way they have deceived the public on this issue.

Rest assured; I will never apologize for fighting to win our causes at the ballot box That is the American way!

Rep. Jerry Carl @RepJerryCarl

Due to overwhelming evidence of voter fraud and irregularities in Arizona and Pennsylvania, I voted to challenge fraudulent electors from both states. Read my full statement explaining why:

Congressman Jerry Carl Challenges Fraudulent Electors in Arizona, Pennsylvania

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Today, Congressman Jerry Carl (R-Mobile) announces he voted to challenge the fraudulent electors from Arizona and Pennsylvania due to overwhelming evidence of voter fraud and election irregularities in both states.

"After significant research into the numerous complaints of voter fraud and irregularities in both Arizona and Pennsylvania, I became convinced it was necessary for me to exercise my Constitutional duty to challenge the slate of electors from these two states. This was a decision I did not come to without thorough investigation and research, but the evidence of a significant lack of election integrity in both Arizona and Pennsylvania cannot be tolerated," said Carl in a statement.

Evidence of voter fraud and irregularities in Arizona and Pennsylvania arise from numerous verified witnesses and elected officials.

Arizona’s election officials refused to allow the inspection of signed envelopes or images of signed envelopes containing mail-in ballots, and multiple witnesses say legal observers were not allowed to observe the verification of signatures at the Maricopa County Tabulation Center. Observers were forced to sit at a table far from the computer monitors and were told to use binoculars to read the screens.

Pennsylvania’s Supreme Court altered the state’s election law just seven weeks before the general election by deciding that mail-in ballots could be counted up to three days after election day, when state law provided that all mail-in ballots must be received by 8:00 pm on election night. The state Supreme Court also ruled that ballots without a postmark would be counted and signatures on the mail-in ballots do not need to be counted, when state law required ballots to be postmarked appropriately and contain a verified signature.

Members of Pennsylvania’s State Senate expressed their grave concerns to the U.S. Congress in a January 5, 2021, letter, asking Congress to “delay certification of the Electoral College to allow time..."
A few minutes ago I voted against the House Democrats’ resolution impeaching President Trump. I voted no because the reasons cited in the article failed to reach the necessary threshold for impeachment. The President has publicly conceded the election and committed to (1/3) a peaceful transition of power, and I trust he will uphold this promise to ensure a smooth transition to the next administration. With only a few days left until January 20th, I believe impeachment further divides the American people at a time when unity is needed. (2/3)

Biden supporters, faced with a loss, geared up for riots. Businesses boarded up in fear.

Trump supporters, faced with a loss, geared up to fight in court.

This difference matters.

It’s odd is it not how "precisely" the #MichiganGlitch was able to take "exact" amounts & each time give that exact amount to @JoeBiden? It never went the other way. Take these numbers & double them as the difference in totals. PA & WI are already flipped.

ow.ly/RiDX36rjYf

On Saturday:
In MI it was 6,000 votes in Antirim Co.

Since then:
In MI it was exactly 1,127 votes.
In PA it was exactly 19,958 votes.
In GA it was exactly 1,902 votes.
In WI it was exactly 13,400 votes.
In WI it was exactly 9,516 votes.

All of the “glitches” went only one direction.

"Biden achieved 97% of all additional new votes above 2016 election total & achieved 151% more new votes than... new registrations..."

These statistical anomalies would keep political scientists up at night if it were against any president not named Trump▼

6. At a county or district level of analysis, statistical anomalies appear in even greater ratios. For example, in the township of Livonia, Wayne County, which was a majority Republican county in the 2016 General Election, showed Biden gain 3.3 new voters to every 1 new Trump voter. Biden also achieved 97% of all additional new votes above 2016 General Election total vote sum Livonia, as well as achieved 151% more new votes than all total new registrations in the township, which is a significant mathematical curiosity.

7. Such local mathematical anomalies are not seen in all townships of both Wayne and Oakland Counties, but rather only a select few.

8. I constructed a mathematical model that subtracted out local statistical anomalies and renormalized them according to their 2016 ratios, all while keeping pace with the additional turnout for Trump as a control. This allowed me to quantify a predicted number of anomalous votes per county, which are listed at the end of the Declaration. In all, I identified some 40,771 votes as statistically anomalous in Wayne County (outside Detroit), and some 46,155 votes in Oakland County.

18 House colleagues joined me in sending a letter to @senatemajldr, @SpeakerPelosi, and various House & Senate committee chairs seeking election fraud hearings ahead of the Jan 6th Electoral College vote submissions.

Our letter requests the recipients do their jobs & conduct voter fraud & election theft hearings & investigations so that Congressmen & Senators will be better informed when Congress faces questions about the legitimacy of various federal elections held on November 3, 2020.

On January 6th, I will vote against the Electoral College results for the 2020 election. There are far too many instances of alleged voter fraud that have called the legitimacy of the election results into question.

In addition, election officials in certain states appeared to have deliberately acted in an unconstitutional manner to manipulate the results. These allegations of election fraud must be thoroughly investigated before Congress can act.

The results of a handful of states critical to both campaigns are in serious doubt. Our elections should be free, fair and transparent. The 2020 election was not. Therefore, I will object to the results of the Electoral College.

Today I voted against the impeachment of President Trump. This action by Speaker Pelosi will only further divide our nation. Just like yesterday when she proceeded with a vote on a resolution concerning the 25th Amendment even after Vice President Pence rejected it.

The partisan political divide in our nation can only begin to be addressed by instilling confidence in our elections. Our nation would be better served if Pelosi would work with Republicans to bring trust and confidence in our elections rather than to further divide our nation.
