Video: “We’re going to have to fight because we want to make sure every legal vote is counted. But it’s just the legal votes that have to be counted, and they should not be voting after the election.” – Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy

Republicans are fighting to make sure that every LEGAL vote is counted accurately.
ONE person, ONE vote.

That means ONE eligible person is allowed to cast & have counted ONE legal vote.

Protecting & defending that treasured American process with transparency, security, trust, integrity & legitimacy is as fundamental & critical an American value as it gets.

Maricopa County election officials are blocking entrance of Official House Election Observers, as authorized by the Speaker, to execute constitutional responsibilities of overseeing administration of congressional elections. This is an essential part of ensuring fair elections.

Dear Secretary Hobbs:

Under the power granted to the House in Article I, Section 5 of the U.S. Constitution to “be the Judge of the Elections, Returns, and Qualifications of its own Members,” the Committee on House Administration of the United States House of Representatives is vested under House Rules with jurisdiction over contested House elections.

Given the narrow margin in the race for the Office of Representative from the Sixth Congressional District of Arizona, the Committee is sending staff to observe the counting of votes in this election and to gather information about the conduct of the election.

The purpose of the observers is solely to gather information with respect to the election should the election later be contested in the House of Representatives. The staff has been instructed that they are to play no formal role in the vote counting process and are to function solely as observers.

The Committee requests your assistance to the staff charged with observing in this information gathering process. Your attention and cooperation in this matter are greatly appreciated. If you have any questions or concerns about ballot counting or recounting, please contact the Committee on House Administration and ask for Cathy Bayes, Chief Legal Counsel for Elections, at (202) 225-8281.

Sincerely,

Rodney Davis

Every legal vote must be counted. Free and fair elections are the hallmarks of a free and open society. Fraudulent voting and related activities that subvert our democracy must not be tolerated.

@realDonaldTrump wants every legal vote counted. Joe Biden? “Every” vote.

Hoax after hoax. Fake impeachments, scandals, and controversies. And yet, this has been in the works for some time and it’s as real as it gets.

Count every legal vote, period. The integrity of our election system is at stake and every American should want nothing less.

So what was the Russia Hoax? It certainly wasn’t anything factual or even remotely truthful. That got coverage for months, it not the better part of three years.

Illegal ballots and voter fraud doesn’t have to be “widespread” for it to still occur and change/alter election outcomes.

It can happen in enough places that can change elections, plain and simple, and not be “widespread”.

Only legally cast ballots should be counted!

The Constitution, in many ways, ensures states have more power than the federal government does. It’s where people live, work, and vote. States have the authority and power to ensure elections are done fairly, openly, and transparently. States are where elections are certified.

The reports, videos, and images of assaults and potentially life-threatening altercations against supporters of President Trump is the furthest thing from unity and healing. Joe Biden’s America - if he ends up being certified - will be dangerous for many, safe for the select.
“Voter fraud isn’t widespread”, they say. “It doesn’t happen enough to change elections”, they’ve clamored. Well, the two state representatives in Arkansas who are in the middle of this may have a different opinion, as well as those who voted.

Well, that’s an interesting word choice. We’ve moved from “widespread” to “significant”.

With widespread reports - including Arkansas - of ballot fraud and/or irregularities, it would seem the MSM is still trying to whitewash the voices of 70 million Americans from this election.

Even with the significant and complete whitewashing of the election by the MSM, almost fifty percent (!!) of Americans distrust the election results. This is why we must have transparency and full-faith efforts/audits on the results. Why isn’t Joe Biden asking for this?

In 2001, 2005, and 2017 (after Pres. Trump was elected), Democrats objected to the election results, and did so without being accused of sedition, treason, or high crimes. It’s a Constitutional right we have as legislators, that remains to this day.

Supporting the Motion to Object is not about rejecting the electors, per se. It’s about challenging the process by which they became electors. Several states seemingly violated their own constitutions via rule making that was not sanctioned by the state legislatures... (2/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
And, by extension, the US Constitution, as it vests the power of our elections to state legislatures, not an election commissioner, Secretary of State, judge, or even a Governor. This dilutes the votes of the citizenry in states like Arkansas - who have played by the rules (3/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
The Constitution makes provisions for these challenges and both chambers of Congress have rules packages governing the implementation of such measures. Affording Congress this ability is more about debating questionable election processes than overturning entire elections. (4/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
Similar challenges were raised against George W. Bush in 2001 and 2005, and the same challenge was raised against President Trump in 2017 - all without the slightest hint of indignation from the media or Democrat Members of Congress. I know many hate the President... (5/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
Republicans included - and just want him gone. In many cases, that hatred has clouded their vision to the extent that his exit from office is all that matters. They’re willing to accept the means to that end, even if it requires looking the other way on how it was achieved. (6/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
We should always endeavor to avoid disenfranchising voters - voting represents personal sovereignty in our Republic. No matter our personal feelings, we should respect the fact that the president is also entitled to the same consideration. (7/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
My motivation is not based on any loyalty to a person/personality. It’s rooted in a loyalty to the U.S. Constitution which serves to ensure our personal sovereignty through our vote. And, this cycle, I’m motivated by a highly flawed electoral process across several states. (8/x)

Rep Rick Crawford @RepRickCrawford · Jan 5
It is my hope that some of this could lead to the involvement of SCOTUS so that future elections don’t see this type of election chicanery again. No matter the perpetrators, it’s wrong. Free and fair elections are worth fighting for, now and in the future. (end)
