Congresswoman Kat Cammack (FL-03) Statement On Electoral Certification Process

"The foundation of our constitutional republic is the right to free and fair elections. Our nation's founders understood that our government should be by the people and for the people, giving all American citizens a voice in the democratic process. Unfortunately, the general election this past November revealed election irregularities that still have yet to be resolved. Without the necessary investigations into these violations of our electoral laws, I will object to the electoral college certification of the states that have violated the 12th Amendment during today's joint session of Congress.

"State laws in the 2020 election were circumvented without the approval of state legislatures, egregiously violating the Constitution that I swore an oath to defend and protect. I sent a letter, joined by dozens of my colleagues, to Speaker Pelosi demanding House leadership open a full investigation into the irregularities reported nationwide, but Speaker Pelosi has yet to respond, choosing to ignore the voices of millions of Americans that have spoken out about their concerns. The American people shouldn't go unanswered, especially when this issue affects the very cornerstone of our country and sets a dangerous precedent for future elections to come.

"We must do everything in our power to fight for all Americans' right to a free and fair election. This is not a partisan issue; this is an American issue. It is our responsibility to bring integrity to this process, and through that, restore faith in the fundamental cornerstone of our republic."

Congresswoman Kat Cammack Statement On Events At U.S. Capitol Today

"As of this writing, my staff and I are safe and in a secure location after evacuation by Capitol Police.

"Today, while objecting to the electoral college certification of states with explicit election irregularities, the Capitol was breached by protesters. The situation escalated quickly with members being notified that nearby buildings were being breached. Midway through debate on the objection of the Arizona certification, protesters began attempting to breach the House Floor. In response, Capitol police barricaded the doors and Members were instructed to prepare their evacuation routes in anticipation of our gas being deployed. As attempts to gain entry into the chamber grew in intensity, I witnessed fellow Members joining with Capitol Police to further barricade doors by piling furniture. They also began breaking furniture to provide themselves with any means of defense they could find. Within minutes, the sounds of shots began coming through the door. We then began evacuating quickly out of the chamber to a safe location.

"I am currently with my staff and colleagues and will share with you what I have shared with them.

"I am irate.

"I am heartbroken.

"What has transpired here today is unacceptable. Anything less than a full condemnation of the violence is unacceptable. My constituents sent me to Washington to fight for their rights and to be their voice.

"We as a nation have lost too many in the name of freedom. My own family has given much in service to our country. My husband served and was a POW in Nazi Germany to liberate Europe from the Nazis in Iraq. As I write this statement, my husband is still on the other side.

"Anyone who believes that the violence our country has seen as of late is okay, is wrong. Any groups promoting hate or the overthrow of our Republic is, in fact, trampling the flag and Constitution we hold so dear. It is also a slap in the face to every serviceman and woman who has given so much to our nation. Any violence, past or present, I have condemned and will continue to condemn.

"My message is simple. Violence will not be tolerated. If you attack the Capitol, you attack this country. I will fight endlessly to protect our Republic from tyranny. I condemn in the strongest terms the violence perpetrated by any group."

Donalds Statement on Objecting During Electoral College Certification Process on January 6th

"On behalf of the people of Florida's 19th Congressional District who elected me to serve them in Congress, I will object to the certification process on January 6th and will ask legitimate questions to restore faith in our election system. Unlike my Democratic colleagues, I refuse to turn a blind eye to the fact that several states, including the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, neglected the oath of their constitution and the United States Constitution by their failure to follow their election laws.

"Democrats in Congress seem to have lost their devotion to election integrity and security, but make no mistake, I will not waiver. A free and fair election is key to protecting our Constitutional Republic. Every Floridian and American deserves to believe that our elections result from a transparent and lawful democratic process. For this reason, I cannot in good faith vote to support the certification of the electoral college results on January 6th."

FULL STATMENT:

Congressman Donalds' Statement Regarding the Violence on the United States Capitol
January 6, 2021

We are a nation of laws that have governed this exceptional Constitutional Republic for more than two centuries, and no amount of anger should ever compromise that. I woke up this morning intending to uphold laws I feel were not followed during the 2020 Presidential election. Instead, that effort screeched to a halt when lawless vigilantes wreaked havoc on the United States Capitol Building. The actions of the unruly mob took away from many Americans' real concerns regarding the integrity of the election but, even worse, were a warped display of so-called patriotism. I loudly condemned the thuggery exhibited by BLM and Antifa in Kenosha, Minneapolis, and Washington, D.C., and I will continue to denounce the same kind of thuggery displayed today. On my fourth day as a United States Congressman, I followed Capitol staff into a safe room with a gas mask in hand rather than representing my constituents. Our party has always been a party that respects our brave law enforcement, the Rule of Law, and the institutions that make America the greatest country ever to exist. Sadly today, a bunch of lunatics tried to destroy that truth. I want to personally thank the Capitol Police heroes for their dedicated efforts in dealing with this monumental task—you kept us safe, and I'm eternally grateful for that. The tragedy that occurred today tainted the intentions of millions of lawful citizens. America, we are better than this. Now let's get back to work and remember we are all children of God, and I am asking Him today to heal this nation.

The events that unfolded on Jan. 6, 2020, will and shall live in infamy and serve as a reminder of what should never happen again. America has always been a country that welcomes passionate debate and responsible protest. What I witnessed two weeks ago was neither. In the hours following this vicious attack on our Constitutional Republic, both sides of the aisle put party aside to continue business in the People's House. Republicans and Democrats came together, just hours after the Capitol building had been desecrated by violent protestors, to send a message that tyranny of the mob will not deter our democratic process. Whether it is violence in Kenosha or Minneapolis or on Capitol Hill, our leaders must condemn all actions that undermine the rule of law and put our fellow Americans, including law enforcement officers, in danger.

For those who don't believe in voter fraud👉. This is nuts. William Bradley a 118 year old dead person apparently voted via absentee ballot in Wayne County Michigan. Bradley died in 1984. How long has this scam been going on?

A screenshot of a voter registration form. The form is white with a black border. It contains the following fields:

- A text input field at the top.
- A label with a red asterisk:  Last name, followed by a text input field.
- A label with a red asterisk:  Birth month, followed by a dropdown menu with the word "Select" and a downward arrow.
- A label with a red asterisk:  Birth year, followed by a text input field.
- A label with a red asterisk:  ZIP code, followed by a text input field.
- A button at the bottom right labeled "Clear name form".

At the bottom left of the form, there is a video player interface showing "0:34" and "192K views".

Lol! He's right.

I used info via Social Security Death Index on "Your Voter Information" on the Michigan SoS website.

William was born in 1902, died in Detroit at age 82 in 1984.

He applied for an absentee ballot on 9/11, submitted it on 9/19.

They've been at it for months.

  EVIDENCE

Detroit Poll watcher: At 4:30 a.m. on Nov. 4 "tens of thousands of ballots" delivered from out-of-state

"Unlike the other ballots, these boxes were brought in from the rear of the room"

"I specifically noticed every ballot I observed was cast for Joe Biden"

6. At approximately 4:30 a.m., I thought everyone was going to go home as our shift had ended.
7. There were two men in charge of the counting, one in his 30s and one in his 50s.
8. At approximately 4:30 a.m., on November 4, 2020, the man in his 50s got on the microphone and stated that another shipment of absentee ballots would be arriving and would have to be counted.
9. I heard other challengers say that several vehicles with out-of-state license plates pulled up to the TCF Center a little before 4:30 a.m. and unloaded boxes of ballots.
10. At approximately 4:30 a.m., tens of thousands of ballots were brought in and placed on eight long tables. Unlike the other ballots, these boxes were brought in from the rear of the room.
11. The same procedure was performed on the ballots that arrived at approximately 4:30 a.m., but I specifically noticed that every ballot I observed was cast for Joe Biden.
12. While counting these new ballots, I heard counters say at least five or six times that all five or six ballots were for Joe Biden. All ballots sampled that I heard and observed were for Joe Biden.

Welcome aboard, Senator.

Josh Hawley ✓ @HawleyMO · Dec 30, 2020

Millions of voters concerned about election integrity deserve to be heard. I will object on January 6 on their behalf

Hawley Statement On Objecting During Electoral College Certification Process

“Following both the 2004 and 2016 elections, Democrats in Congress objected during certification of electoral votes in order to raise concerns about election integrity. They praised by Democratic leadership and the media when they did. And they were entitled to do so. But now those of us concerned about the integrity of this election are entitled to do the same.”

“I cannot vote to certify the electoral college results on January 6 without raising the issue of election integrity. Some states, particularly Pennsylvania, failed to follow their own state election laws. I cannot vote to certify without pointing out the unprecedented effort of mega corporations including Facebook and Twitter, to interfere in this election, in support of Joe Biden. At the least, Congress should investigate allegations of voter fraud and adopt measures to secure the integrity of our elections. But Congress has so far failed to act.

“For these reasons, I will follow the same practice Democrat members of Congress have in the past and object during the certification process on January 6 to raise these critical issues.”

We see our National Guard members having their social media scrubbed, having to answer for their patriotism... on the issue of using national security tools against our people. You know what’s interesting, Laura? No one’s ever used the word ‘murder’ to describe what happened on January 6th even though that’s what it is... they want to use terms like national security, insurrection, domestic terrorism, because that allows them to access these exquisite authorities to use tools that we envision to go after terrorist in foreign lands, then being turned against our own people. The Democrats mean what they say when they talk about reprogramming MAGA and purging the country of people who have embraced the policies that made our country more prosperous, more successful, and more focused.”

The incoming Biden administration wants to use national security authorities against MAGA.

The allegations of irregularities in the vote counting process should be concerning to everyone. I asked AG Barr to use the resources of @TheJusticeDept to ensure that the process is conducted in a manner that is fully consistent with state and federal law.

Show this thread

The U.S. Marshals Service is also available to ensure that judicial orders are carried out. When it comes to a federal election, it should not matter whether those judicial orders come from a state or federal court. For example, if a state court orders that observers can watch ballot counting in a federal election, no local election official should be able to defy that order.

With that in mind, we request an immediate response to the following questions. What are you doing to ensure the integrity of the voting and counting process right now? Will you commit to using all the resources at your disposal to ensure that only legal votes are being counted and being counted in a fully transparent manner immediately?

Thank you for your prompt reply.

An important lesson I learned from our election reform efforts is that people should never underestimate the lengths that political operatives will go to try to gain an advantage in an election. It's disheartening to see what has been transpiring this year with so many reports of irregularities, disenfranchisement and reports of widespread voter fraud. We may never know the extent of voter fraud that has taken place in the 2020 election, but we do know that fraud and allegations of fraud undermine the confidence in our election and of those who are elected. Elected officials have a sworn duty to weed out fraud, put election safeguards in place and restore confidence in our electoral processes.

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515-5000

December 1, 2020

The Honorable William Barr
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Attorney General Barr,

On November 9th, you received a letter signed by 39 Members of Congress asking you to use the tools at your disposal to secure the integrity of the 2020 election. We appreciated the news on November 9th that you had authorized federal prosecutors to pursue substantial allegations of fraud.

We are writing today because we are concerned about the shocking lack of action from the Justice Department following your directive. There are a number of witnesses, statistical irregularities and accusations of fraud that bring the election results in several states into question. Affidavits of irregularities in the voting and tabulation process have been sworn in a number of jurisdictions. Threats of retaliation by leftist groups with a history of violence have been made against election officials and witnesses for President Trump. And a number of last minute changes in balloting and counting requirements cause questions about the overall integrity of federal elections.

With any of the concerns raised about the integrity of ballot cast, it is critical to ensure that we have all the facts and evidence necessary to review. More than enough evidence has been presented to warrant the issuing of subpoenas, search warrants and the suspending of ballot materials and election devices for forensic analysis. Notably, in Georgia where officials will be preparing for the Senate runoff election, it is imperative that election materials, including voting machines, be preserved for analysis. If any of this investigative activity is currently taking place at any level of the Justice Department, it has not been made known to the American people.

There is no doubt that it is the duty of the Justice Department to ensure that the right to vote is secured. There is also no doubt that the Justice Department must investigate violence or threats of violence against election officials and any citizens participating in the election process.

The post-Election Day delay and inaction is particularly regrettable after the long-awaited release of the Durham report outlines tragically delayed schedule. For three years, the American people watched as our independent federal Justice Department was reorganized against their elected President. They have watched with both horror that those who violated the law in the liberty. But as President Reagan used to remind people, the Soviet Union had a constitution too, and it even included some lofty-sounding rights. Ultimately, however, those promises were just empty words, because there was no rule of law to enforce them."

We appreciate an Attorney General who respects the Constitution, who understands the rule of law and is able to skillfully and forcefully ensure these ideals. What the American people need in this moment, however, is bold and courageous action.

Unfortunately, too often the American people have seen many of our most powerful institutions corrupted against the People. In the case of alleged election irregularities, justice delayed truly would be justice denied. The American people deserve, and justice demands, action now.

Michael Cloud

Congressman Kevin McCarthy
Republican Leader - US House of Representatives
2400 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20115

RE: General Election Irregularities in Pennsylvania during the November 2020 cycle

Dear Congressman McCarthy:

Bribe, and a payoff $200 for Trump. Another witness testified that an election worker was plugging flash drives into voting machines in a heavily democratic area, for no stated purpose. The hearing demonstrated that there is rampant election fraud in Pennsylvania that it must be investigated, remedied and rectified.

Other irregularities included in the testimony:

- (a) Mail-in ballots not inspected by Republican representatives in portions of Philadelphia and Allegheny County;
- (b) Montgomery County was never provided with guidelines from State Department Secretary about "curing" defective ballots;
- (c) Timeline spikes depict more ballots being processed during specific periods than voting machines are capable of tabulating;
- (d) The Philadelphia Board of Elections processed hundreds of thousands of mail-in ballots with zero civilian oversight;
- (e) Ballots were separated from envelopes in numerous precincts; a recount is unclear because the votes cannot be verified;
- (f) Observers were corralled behind fencing in Philadelphia, at least 10 feet away from processors; similarly, in Allegheny County, observers were placed at least 15 feet away;

McCarthy

- (c) Improper forfeiture and spoiling of mail-in ballots;
- (d) Illegal ballot harvesting;
- (e) Improper "curing" of insufficiently completed mail-in ballots;
- (f) Poll worker intimidation and harassment;
- (g) Voter intimidation;
- (h) Improper chain of custody of ballots and election materials; and
- (i) Submission of fraudulent ballots by an individual other than the named voter.

2. There is a massive VOTER DEFICIENCY in Pennsylvania.

In fact, 205,122 more votes were counted than the total number of voters who voted. A comparison of official county election results to the total number of voters who cast ballots November 3, 2020, as recorded by the Department of State, shows a difference of 205,122 more votes cast than voters actually voted. (Ray Frank Ryan, <http://www.splinterjournal.com/News/117514-Latest-News-PA-Legislators-Numbers-Over-200-000-Add-1-p-Certification-of-Presidential-Results-Pennsylvania-Is-Fraud>)

The odyssey of PA finding itself in this position began in early 2020. Using the COVID-19 pandemic as a pretense, the Wolf Administration, together with the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, threw our voting laws into disarray. The General Assembly (State House and State Senate) is constitutionally responsible for writing election law, not Governor Wolf, Secretary of State Boockvar or the state's Supreme Court. The state Supreme Court and Secretary Boockvar fundamentally altered and unconstitutionally rewrote the original meaning of key provisions of Act 77.

Voting law, as passed by the General Assembly in 2019, was clear and specific:

- All mail-in ballots must be received by 8 p.m. on Election Day;
- Officials at polling locations must authenticate the signatures of voters;
- County Boards of Elections can conduct pre-cansassing of absentee and mail-in ballots after 8 a.m. on Election Day;
- Defective absentee and mail-in ballots shall not be counted; and
- "Watchers" selected by candidates and political parties are permitted to observe the process of canvassing absentee and mail-in ballots.

In PA, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and the Executive branch undermined the controls inherent in the Pennsylvania Election Code by eliminating signature verification, postmarks, and due dates while allowing the proliferation of drop boxes with questionable security measures and the unauthorized

Rep. Posey's Statement About Today's Events at the U.S. Capitol

Washington, January 6, 2021 - Congressman Bill Posey (R-Rockledge) released the following statement regarding events today at the U.S. Capitol:

"America has always been first, and foremost, about the rule of law, and that must be respected. I'm disappointed that today's Congressional proceedings over counting and challenging electoral votes were disrupted by a small number of individuals who breached Capitol security. I'm grateful to our law enforcement for their courage in protecting the Capitol Building, and the public, and urge everyone to respect their authority. I share the frustration of many Americans who do not feel they are being treated fairly, but we can and should do better."

On January 6th, I will OBJECT. It is up to the state legislatures in the six contested states to move quickly and do what they know is right. See my full statement below.

"On January 6th, I will join my colleagues in objecting to any electors from states where serious allegations of election fraud exist and in some cases civil litigation remains pending. However, state legislators hold absolute authority over their electoral process and it is their responsibility to acknowledge that election anomalies in their states were too great to certify their electors.

"In fact, many of these states where litigation is still pending hold the Republican majority needed to carry a decertification vote in their various legislatures. By following this Constitutional path, both presidential candidates would fail to reach 270 electoral votes, granting the U.S. House the responsibility to select the next president.

"Unfortunately, the result on January 6th is almost certain, because Democrats have the votes to prevail over the objections we raise. It is really up to the state legislatures in the six contested states to move quickly and do what they know is right."

105 of my colleagues and I have filed an amicus brief in Texas v. Pennsylvania, et al. Election integrity is a critical component of the American system. The U.S. Constitution gives State Legislatures the exclusive authority to determine the manner in which electors are appointed/chosen.

State and federal law, not the media, set the timeline for certifying election results and the meeting of electors. Throughout my time in public service, I have advocated to preserve the Separation of Powers and for State Legislatures – and Congress – to defend, and when necessary, take back authority given them by the Constitution.

When the role of the State Legislature to make laws is under attacked by the Executive Branch or activist state judges, the Legislature can and should appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court to defend its constitutional authority. In part, as a result of my advocacy in 2000 for Florida to act the Florida Legislature successfully appealed to SCOTUS in Bush v. Gore.

We are a nation of laws and order. We must ensure a constitutionally approved process was conducted and all valid claims are properly addressed. As I said last month, President Trump has the right to take legal action and request recounts to ensure every and only legally cast ballots are counted. Twenty years ago, the news media projected the wrong winner in Florida, and it was about a month before official results of the 2000 Presidential Election were known. Free and fair elections are the bedrock of our republic and it is always right to fight to uphold the constitution when a serious question arises.

Below is the statement I have prepared with 36 of my colleagues on today's joint session. It summarizes my position and the legal analysis that supports it.

WEBSTER.HOUSE.GOV

37 REPUBLICAN MEMBERS RELEASE STATEMENT AHEAD OF ELECTORAL COLLEGE VOTE

In our unique system, Congress is positioned as the last bulwark in a presidential election to ensure the Constitution has been followed. Indeed, just two decades ago, the Supreme Court plainly acknowledged this...

In the four subject states, the legislatures did enact detailed rules and procedures by which those states were to determine their electors. However, as explained in our amicus brief, in the months preceding the 2020 election, those well-established rules and procedures were deliberately changed by a variety of other officials, including governors, secretaries of state, election officials, judges, and private parties.

That usurpation of the legislatures' sole authority, delegated by the Constitution, was a primary reason why the election of 2020 became riddled with an unprecedented number of serious allegations of fraud and irregularities. National polls indicate a large percentage of Americans now have serious doubts about not just the outcome of the current presidential contest, but also the future reliability of our election system itself. We share these grave concerns. However, as it pertains to our constitutional duty as Members of Congress on January 6, we have no express authority or ability to independently prove the many allegations of fraud in the subject states.

Still, we are faced with a seminal legal question. Since we are convinced the election laws in certain states were changed in an unconstitutional manner, the slates of electors produced under those modified laws are thus unconstitutional, not "regularly given" or "lawfully certified" as required by the Electoral Count Act of 1887 (codified as 3 U.S.C. §§ 1, et seq.), and are invalid on their face. Given these inescapable facts, we believe we have no choice but to vote to sustain objections to those slates of electors.

Due to family medical obligations, I am unable to travel to D.C. for tonight and tomorrow's votes. Given we are nearly a week from Inauguration Day, it will be nigh impossible for Congress to follow the impeachment trial process as outlined in the Constitution by January 20th and the process will further divide our country. America is hurting and upset. Now is not the time to throw more fuel on a fire. We should focus on bringing to justice those who attacked law enforcement and the U.S. Capitol last week and ensuring a safe Inauguration Day as prescribed in our Constitution.

We are a country of laws and order, all Americans, regardless of how they feel about the 2020 election results must abide by processes outlined in law and our Constitution and work together to tackle the issues facing our country.

There are millions of peaceful, hardworking, Americans who love their country, the constitution and the rule of law that voted for President Trump. They do not support the actions of the violent mob on January 6, 2020, nor do those actions represent the America they love and desire to uphold for their children.

I will continue to speak in support of and propose and advocate for policies that will build a stronger, more prosperous America and empower Americans for generations to achieve success. I continue to pray that each of us would seek to serve others, not ourselves and treat others with kindness and respect. Unkindness and hatred cannot coexist with serving others.
