Freedom or oppression.
A free Republic or total government control.

If Biden is inaugurated as the 46th President of the United States on January 20th, it will mark the final hour of conspiracy to dismantle the American election process, and the first hour of conspiracy to dismantle America.

"Oh what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive."
There is a preponderance of evidence indicating widespread election fraud. Americans should be appalled.
This will be a very interesting Holiday season in America.
Buckle up.

The legal challenges being filed by the Trump campaign are fully justified & must be properly adjudicated. If the people of this country lose their faith in the integrity of our election system, it will jeopardize the very foundations of our republic...

Congressman Johnson re-elected for 4th Congressional District

I arrived back in northern Virginia last night and have been in legal and political strategy meetings for the Trump Campaign all day. Though the media is calling the election for Biden, they shouldn't. As I write this, very important legal challenges are pending and being filed today in several states.

President Trump is fighting for you, and we are fighting for him. But he knows and we know this is about much more than Trump/Pence and this current election. This is about the fundamental fairness of our election system itself. If we do not aggressively pursue and prosecute this corruption now, Americans will no longer have faith that their vote will matter—and the Republican Party will no longer be able to fairly compete in future elections.

Everyone is asking us how they can help. Here are a few important things you can do right now:

2) Encourage friends and families in the contested states to contact the Election Fraud Hotline (1-800-895-4152) if they have credible information to investigate.
3) Continue to pray for our nation and that justice will be done.

Keep the faith, and never, ever give up on America.

Please share this message with others.

“We are in this fight— because when every single legal vote is counted, every American’s right is protected.”

I have just called President Trump to say this: "Stay strong and keep fighting, sir! The nation is depending upon your resolve. We must exhaust every available legal remedy to restore Americans' trust in the fairness of our election system."

And he knows that every instance of fraud and illegality have got to be prosecuted to the full extent of the law… We do need people to donate to the legal effort.”

I joined the Moon Griffon Show yesterday morning to discuss the current status and profound implications of the Trump campaign’s election challenges. This is about the integrity of our entire election system.

Why a GA recount?

In '16, Hillary rec'd 98,417 Absentee-by-mail votes there (5% of her total 1,877,963).

In '20, Joe rec'd 833,962 Absentee-by-mail votes (34% of 2,446,814).

An 8-fold increase?!?

NOTE: In GA, a voter ID is required on all votes... EXCEPT absentee votes.
"Liberals urging voters to move to Georgia to vote in the January Senate runoff elections may want to think twice — moving to Georgia for a short time just to vote is against state law." @FoxNews

Audio: “I don’t concede anything… I’ve talked to the President in the last few days and he is still dug in on this… All of us know intuitively that there was a lot amiss about this election day… The allegations about these voting machines, some of them being rigged with the software by Dominion. Look, there’s a lot of merit to that. And when the President says the election is rigged, that’s what he’s talking about.”

Rep. Mike Johnson (R-La.) and Rep. Jim Banks (R-Ind.), the outgoing and incoming chairmen of the House Republican Study Committee encouraged President Donald Trump to keep exposing evidence of widespread fraudulent voting in the Nov. 3 election.

“...I am literally getting text messages right now while we’re talking, constituents, on the phone about this subject, saying, ‘Stand with the president, make sure the election is fair,’” Johnson said. He said he’s unsure what the outcome of Trump’s legal efforts will be.

President Trump called me this morning to let me know how much he appreciates the amicus brief we are filing on behalf of Members of Congress. Indeed, “this is the big one!”

I’m pleased to join @RepMikeJohnson and my @HouseGOP colleagues on an amicus curiae brief to the Supreme Court in support of the Texas v. Pennsylvania case. This brief presents the unconstitutional irregularities rampant in @realDonaldTrump’s election. The SC must investigate.

Democrat Rep. Steve Cohen has made headlines the last few days for making increasingly outrageous claims. He has accused both his Republican colleagues—and now our National Guard troops—of being threats to Capitol security! Shameless.
My statement on the new Presidential Administration and 117th Congress —>

“This 59th Inauguration Day is a testament to the enduring American tradition of transferring the enormous power of the presidency. I am proud of all the extraordinary things Congress was able to accomplish working with President Trump and his administration to benefit our districts and our states.

“In the 117th Congress, I look forward to working together on big priorities like helping to address our infrastructure needs, expand rural broadband access, and ensure our military installations have the resources they need to keep Americans safe.

“We hope that the appeal to unity today is sincere and that the actions of the Biden Administration match that message. If not, I’ll be ready to help lead my House colleagues against any attempts by the Administration to enact an agenda that would jeopardize our cherished freedoms. Our institutions endured unprecedented stress this month, but they stood the test, and now we must get back to the hard work.”

Video: “To call [Trump’s lies at the RNC about mail-in voting and about Obama and Biden] lies is just not accurate. I have seen voter fraud up close. In Louisiana we put an election official in jail.”

Dems and the media expect you to believe their No-ID universal mail voting scheme isn’t a mess.

What a joke.

FACT → Most states admit over 10% of their voter rolls are inaccurate—that means millions of ballots floating around ripe for fraud under Pelosi’s system.
Every single American citizen should be demanding all of this:

- Transparency
- Count all legal votes
- Do not count any illegal votes
- Observation of ballot sorting and counting by both parties
- Election laws enforced as written

Republicans won’t quit fighting.

Many states didn't carry out elections according to the rules set by their legislatures, as the Constitution requires.

We cannot turn a blind eye.

I will vote in favor of objections to certification of electoral votes from states with serious questions about election integrity.

THREAD:

This is the second time in three years I have seen political violence firsthand. Republicans and Democrats alike must have the moral clarity to call out violent rhetoric whenever it's spoken, not just when it's politically convenient.

Opinion | Politics Has No Place for Violence
The man who shot me in 2017 and the Capitol Hill rioters all were radicalized by extreme rhetoric.

Repeating to @SteveScalise
I am still outraged by the domestic terrorism we saw at the Capitol last week, and I condemned it immediately.

Many Democrats who were rightfully quick to condemn last week’s events were noticeably silent over the summer as Americans watched cities go up in flames.

Elected officials and the media have a responsibility to condemn political violence and violent rhetoric across the board.

Selectively condemning it sends a message that cruelty and destruction in the name of political agendas will be celebrated. We must end this dangerous idea.
