The need to ensure election integrity has not changed, and the concerns regarding voter integrity are not washed away because protestors, many of whom supported President Trump, stormed the Capitol today. Therefore, I object to the certification of electors chosen from states that blatantly violated their own election laws. These states usurped power from their state legislatures to change voting procedures. As a result, these state entities violated the Constitution and opened the election to an unprecedented number of serious allegations of voter fraud and irregularities.
What was already a sobering process was heightened by the appalling lawlessness yesterday that desecrated our beautiful Capitol and threatened our lives. In the end we the Congress fulfilled our hollowed duty. We thoroughly debated objections to some state's electors and voted.

Every LEGAL vote should be counted; every illegal vote should not.

The American people deserve transparency and a fair election process. I stand with President @realDonaldTrump in his efforts to ensure that happens.

Joe Biden wants to "count every vote."

President @realDonaldTrump wants to count every legal vote.

There’s a big difference.

The reported results of this past November’s Presidential election don’t even pass the most basic eye test. Republicans were projected to lose seats in the U.S. House of Representatives, we gained more than a dozen. Republicans were supposed to lose control of several state legislatures, we picked up multiple. We were projected to lose control of the United States Senate – we didn’t, and we won’t. All of this occurred on the same night President Trump lost? It’s hard to believe. Combined with the daily reports of voting irregularities where state election laws were discarded and not followed. something doesn’t add up. President Trump won over 74 million votes, Obama – 69 million. President Trump won 2586 counties. Obama – 873 counties. Joe Biden – 527 counties. The numbers, the evidence, and the abnormalities all speak for themselves.
Did you know:

In 1960 Nixon as Vice President rejected Hawaii’s “certified” election results because of irregularities and fraud.

The President of the Senate, VP, has full authority to reject a states electors

Lots of precedent and options!

This claim about election fraud is disputed
Objecting to state electors is not undemocratic; it’s part of a specific checks and balances process outlined in federal law and our constitution. If state executive branch leaders violated their own election laws, then that’s fraudulent. Congress should not allow it.

Georgia just stopped counting votes for the night in Chatham County.

They're doing this again. You can't make this up.

Where are the "Republican" leaders?

RT!

For nine weeks, Democrats have been afraid to have a real debate on election integrity.

Why?

Stopping voting, delayed counting or counting very late into the night is why people believe elections are rigged. It's shady and state legislatures should fix it.

The board of elections annex building is empty. Workers say they’ll be back at 8 a.m.

Still thousands of votes to be counted here. @WJCLNews

It's an incredible double standard when those who failed to condemn violence in Seattle, Portland, Chicago, Kenosha, DC, NY, etc become holier than thou. Or when suddenly, 1/6 objections used by Dems to object to every GOP presidential win in the past generation is now treason.

Wed's violence was terrible, but some people need to take a deep breadth and look in the mirror. Those who committed acts of violence in the Capitol must be held accountable, but Dems and media eager to use Wed to settle political scores would only be dividing our country more.

The media approved and excused all of it.
On the same date in the same place as part of the same Constitutional process, Dems made Jan 6 objections after EVERY GOP presidential win over the past generation. The double standard is wild on this one. GOP is tagged as seditionist traitors if they voice Jan 6 objections too.
